

You may have correctly canceled common factors and used the quotient rule to simplify this expression, but forgot that a positive divided by a negative is a negative. The correct answer is $\frac{-5}{w^2}$.