You probably factored out the -1 and began to factor by grouping correctly. However, when factoring out the common binomial factor you may have added the two common factors together to obtain $4x + 2$.