

Incorrect. First check to see that each of these is a perfect square trinomial. Remember that $4 = 2^2$ and $9 = 3^2$. A trinomial in the form $r^2 + 2rs + s^2$ can be factored as $(r + s)^2$. A trinomial in the form $r^2 - 2rs + s^2$ can be factored as $(r - s)^2$.