

Correct. Each x -value has a corresponding y -value that you can get by substituting for x in the equation $y = 3x$. If you substitute $x = 4$, you get $y = 3(4) = 12$. The missing value of y is 12.