This is the next step in the process, but the trinomial is not factored. To be factored, the expression must be written as a single product. This is the sum of two products.