

Incorrect. Notice that each x -value is three times the amount of the corresponding y -value, or that each y -value equals the corresponding x -value divided by 3. The correct answer is 3.