This is a solution to the first equation, but not to the system. If you substitute these values into the second equation you get $8 - 5 = 14$, which is false. Solve the second equation for x: $x = 14 + 5y$. Then substitute $14 + 5y$ for x in the first equation and solve for y. Substitute this value into any equation to find x.