

Correct. Because the overall quantity of cookies is $5 + x$, and dividing this quantity by eight yields 2 cookies per child, this equation represents the relationship.