Over the summer, Constance Lee collected used books to distribute to 15 school libraries. At the beginning of the summer, she started out with 40 books. She collected enough books by the end of the summer to donate 35 books to each of the 15 libraries.

Which of the following equations best represents this situation?