

Substitute $3x + 2$ for y in the second equation: $4(3x + 2) - 12x = 8$

Simplify: $12x + 8 - 12x = 8$ or $8 = 8$

This equation is true no matter what value x is, which means that every value of x will give you a solution. So there are an infinite number of solutions.