

You reversed the  $x$ -value and the  $y$ -value when substituting into the second equation. In an ordered pair the first number is substituted in for  $x$  and the second number is substituted in for  $y$ .