

You may have incorrectly thought that the solution to the system is the same as the constants in the two equations. You need to substitute 13 for x and -12 for y in each of the equations to see if you get two true statements. If either one is false, then it is not a solution to the system.