

You may have seen that  $-\frac{1}{9}$  is the negative reciprocal of 9, and thought that this made the two lines perpendicular. However, these are the  $y$ -intercepts of the lines. In order for the two lines to be perpendicular, the slopes must be negative reciprocals of each other.