

The lines have the same slope of 2 and different y-intercepts, so they are parallel. This means that they are distinct lines, so the equations are independent. The lines are graphed below.

