

The equations are dependent because the lines do not intersect.