

It is true that the lines do not intersect. However, you have confused the definitions of dependent and independent. The equations are dependent only if their graphs are the same line. The correct answer is: The equations are independent because the lines are parallel.