

Though you correctly substituted the slope (m) into $y = mx + b$, you then substituted the y -value from the ordered pair (1) for b . Instead, you should substitute the coordinates of the point $(-6, 1)$ for x and y in $y = \frac{2}{3}x + b$, and solve for b .