You used the x-value and the y-value from the ordered pair as the coefficients of x and y in the equation $y = mx + b$. Then you replaced b with the slope, $\frac{2}{3}$, which is actually m in the equation.