

You may have thought this was a solution because substituting $(-1, -1)$ into the inequality gives you 3 on the left side. However, the left side must be less than 3. That is, $3 < 3$ is a false statement, so $(-1, -1)$ is not a solution to $2y - 5x < 3$.