

The correct lines are drawn and the correct shading for $y \leq 2x + 3$ is given. However, the incorrect shading is given for $y \leq 2$. To determine the correct shading, test points on either side of each line to see which one makes the inequality true.