

Suppose that you need to solve the following system.

Equation A: $3x - 2y = 5$

Equation B: $8x + 2y = 6$

If you are using the elimination method to get rid of one of the variables, which is the most efficient first step?