You may have multiplied the first equation by 4 instead of by -4 and made a mistake combining it with the second equation. This ordered pair satisfies the first equation, but not the second. If you substitute it into the left side you will get $3x + 4y = 3(7) + 4(5) = 21 + 20 = 41$, not 1.