

You may have correctly multiplied the first equation by -4 and combined the equations to find that $x = 15$, but then mixed up the variables. This ordered pair satisfies the first equation, but not the second. If you substitute it into the left side you will get $3x + 4y = 3(2) + 4(15) = 6 + 60 = 66$, not 1 .