

A student is solving a system of two linear equations using the elimination method. She ends up with the equation  $0 = 0$ . She did not make any mistakes. What does this mean?