

This is a solution to the first equation, but not to the system. If you substitute these values into the second equation you get $189 + 66 = -31$, which is false. Solve the first equation for x : $x = 16 - y$. Then substitute $16 - y$ for x in the second equation and solve for y . Substitute this value into any equation to find x .