Julia always has at least 6 necklaces. The total number of necklaces and bracelets she has at any time is at most 10. The purple region in the graph below represents this situation. Right now she has 3 bracelets. A possible number of necklaces she could have is _____.