

You may either have reversed a possible solution or incorrectly completed the graph. Draw solid boundary lines in Quadrant I. Check points to see which side of each to shade. You must choose a point within the shaded region.