

While it is true that $(4, -3)$ is not a solution to the system, it is actually a solution to the second equation. You may have incorrectly substituted. Make sure that you replace x by 4 and y by -3 . The correct answer is: No, because $(4, -3)$ is a solution to only one equation.