

The graph of this system is shown below. The single line is the graph of both equations. This means that the equations are dependent.

