

Let x = the first length and y = the second length.

The two lengths add up to 360 inches, so $x + y = 360$.

One length is five times the length of the other, so $x = 5y$.