

If x and y represent the two lengths, then the first equation could represent the fact that the total length is 360 inches. However, the second equation would not correctly represent the relationship between x and y . The word times tells you that a product is involved, not a sum.