

The correct lines are drawn and the correct shading for $y > -2x + 4$ is given. However, the incorrect shading is given for $y > -3$. To determine the correct shading, test points on either side of each line to see which one makes the inequality true.