

The graph of a system of two inequalities is shown. The uncolored (white) region is not part of the solution of either inequality. Based on the graph, which point is a solution to the system?

