You may have confused this point with $(3, -2)$, which does lie within the solution. The point $(-2, 3)$ lies in the region below the solid line, but not below the dashed line. So it does not lie in the overlapping region, which represents the solution.