

Suppose that you need to solve the following system.

Equation A: $3x + 6y = 12$

Equation B: $-3x + 5y = -1$

If you are using the elimination method to get rid of one of the variables, which is the most efficient first step?