

Since all the terms are divisible by 3, dividing them by 3 would simplify the first equation. But to use the elimination method, you want to take advantage of having opposite terms, $3x$ and $-3x$, in the two equations. If you divided by 3 you would no longer have those opposite terms.