

You probably thought that you had to find the opposite of the first equation before adding the equations. This ordered pair is a solution for the second equation, but not for the first equation. If you substituted into the left side you would get $11x + 4y = 11(-5) + 4(-21) = -55 - 84 = -139$, not 29.