

This multiplication will result in the two equations having opposite terms, $3y$ and $-3y$, so that the variable y will be eliminated when the equations are added.