

Incorrect. To find the domain, you need to find the excluded values. Set the denominator equal to 0 and solve. To simplify each expression, factor the numerator and denominator. Separate the like factors from the others, and simplify fractions with equal numerators and denominators to 1.