

You may have correctly rewritten the terms as equivalent fractions with least common denominator  $(x + 3)(x - 3)$  and combined the numerators while keeping the denominator the same. However, you cannot cancel a term of 9 on the top with a  $-9$  on the bottom. You need common factors to simplify.