

In an inverse relationship, as one variable increases, the other decreases. In this equation, as  $x$  and  $z$  increase  $y$  also increases. This equation shows a joint variation relationship.