

The equation for joint variation is $y = kxz$.

The area of a rectangle varies jointly with its length and width: $A = lw$. In this formula, the constant of variation (k) is _____.