

It appears that you added the radicands as well as the coefficients. In these radical terms, the radicals themselves are the same; both are square roots and both radicands are 5. This means that you have like terms. Combine them just as you would combine  $9a + 2a$ .