

You may have incorrectly combined the two radicals in the parentheses by subtracting the radicands to obtain $(\sqrt{14})(\sqrt{12})$. Instead you should use the Distributive Property and multiply each term in the parentheses by the radical outside the parentheses. Use $\sqrt{a} \cdot \sqrt{b} = \sqrt{ab}$. Then simplify each radical.