

We are looking for how much is shaded out of how much is there all together. There are five equal shaded parts. There are twelve equal parts all together.