

At 10 a.m., because the average age of someone in the library at that time is about 30