You have chosen the two whole numbers between which $\frac{29}{2}$ falls, instead of the two whole numbers between which $\sqrt{29}$ falls. First find the two perfect squares that surround 29. Take the square roots of those perfect squares to find the two whole numbers.