

The terminal side of  $-140^\circ$  lies in Quadrant III where  $x$  and  $y$  are both negative, so  $\cos \theta = x$  is negative and  $\tan \theta = \frac{y}{x} = \frac{(-)}{(-)} = (+)$  is positive.