

You may have squared the left side and not the right side, to get the incorrect equation $x + 5 = x - 7$. That equation would not have a solution. Make sure that you always perform the same operation on both sides of an equation. In this case you will get $x + 5 = x^2 - 14x + 49$. Solve this quadratic equation and check the solutions back in the original equation.