

If L , M , and S represent the large, medium, and small circumferences, then their total is $L + M + S = 186$. The large pan is twice the small: $L = 2S$, or $L - 2S = 0$. The medium is 18 centimeters greater than the small: $M = S + 18$, or $M - S = 18$.